

Four Agripreneurs participated in Agri-Virtual Grand Challenge Hackathon Programme, Powered by Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) on different themes with their team members.

1. Adesh Sonu Kashid participated for Live Stock Management theme in Hackthon. He is having 10 years of experience in Poultry Farming and currently running his own startup “Vatslya Unique Products”. He wants to learn about Desi Cow Based Products.

2. Nikhil Vasant Bhende participated for Soil Theme in Hackathon. He has done his M.Tech and currently, he is working on his own startup and developing a “Multilayer Cotton Fabricator”. He wants to learn about manufacturing of farm machinery.

3. Satendra Singh Lilhare participated for Post Harvest theme in Hackathon. He is having 3 years of work experience as a CEO of Farmer Producer Organisation (FPO) Cum Business Accelerator Unit. And currently, he is working for his own Startup “Bastar se Bazaar Tak” for Post Harvest Management.

4. Mashetti Vamshi participated for Crop Insurance theme in Hackathon. He has 2 years of work experience in landscaping. Currently, he is working for his own startup “Service Provider of Crop Insurance for Farmers”. He wants to learn insurance technologies from Hackathon.